

Nantahala Outdoor Center Debuts New Elevated Mountain Accommodations: The Hemlocks Now Open

Bryson City, NC – Nantahala Outdoor Center (NOC), a leader in outdoor adventure since 1972, is pleased to announce the grand opening of The Hemlocks. Now welcoming guests, this upscale lodging features elegant bungalow-style accommodations perched on a scenic Smoky Mountain ridgeline, offering a truly elevated mountain getaway experience.

Designed for travelers seeking adventure coupled with refined comfort, The Hemlocks introduces eight thoughtfully appointed units, including one- and two-bedroom bungalows, each with private decks, kitchenettes, modern fireplaces and premium amenities such as locally sourced Pisgah Coffee and Hazelwood Soap Co. toiletries. Select bungalows stand elevated on wood pilings, harmonizing innovative construction with minimal environmental impact.

Imagery Courtesy of NOC

Guests at The Hemlocks enjoy immediate access to over 100 curated adventure itineraries, including whitewater rafting, hiking trails like the nearby Appalachian Trail and leisurely paddling on Lake Fontana. On-site dining, shopping and gear rentals enhance the immersive outdoor experience.

The opening of The Hemlocks marks the first step in NOC's comprehensive campus expansion plan, focusing on blending luxury accommodations with authentic outdoor experiences.

Imagery Available: Download High-Resolution Images

Booking and More Information: noc.com/accommodations/hemlocks